

Therapy Partner, Announces Launch of 3.0, Including Integrated Scheduling, Billing, and Progress Notes

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 10, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Therapy Partner, a national leader in providing online, streamlined and clean technology for the needs of clinicians in private practice (psychologists, psychiatrists, and therapists), has launched 3.0 a progressive, single device application, for complete practice management. Therapy Partner 3.0 has a user interface that is intuitive and is driven by “Book-Bill-Document” proprietary technology; streamlining the daily tasks that clinicians are faced with in business.

Therapy Partner 3.0 boasts an impressive suite of features from a new intuitive and easy to use interface including: Progress Notes, Integrated Calendaring/Patient Scheduling, Comprehensive Billing, Automated Statements, Credit Card Processing, and more. The new proprietary “Book-Bill-Document” feature allows clinicians to easily book clients for appointments, bill multiple sessions across multiple days with one click using the “Quick-Bill” feature, and allows providers to quickly add a progress note. Therapy Partner 3.0 is available for use from your smart phone, tablet, and computer. Comprehensive state of the art storage of patient and financial information are included in the newest version of Therapy Partner 3.0.

Dr. Jessica Dolgan, company CEO and licensed psychologist, states that Therapy Partner 3.0 “was designed to be task driven, in that the primary tools clinicians access through Therapy Partner 3.0 are based on their most frequent tasks and activities in their clinical day. Our goal was to develop an application that is fast, clean, intuitive, and easy, allowing our clinicians to focus on clinical care.” 3.0 sales support Dr. Dolgan’s vision, with an immediate and continued spike in sales noted since the products’ release.

Therapy Partner continues to prove itself as a national leader in the development of technology for clinicians in private practice. 30 percent of Therapy Partner 3.0’s new annual sales continue to come from current customer referrals of colleagues. In addition, clinicians using the product consistently show an increase in revenue of 20 percent in the first year of using Therapy Partner 3.0. Representatives at Therapy Partner note that the clinicians increase in revenue is “directly related to having a single-device technology application that allows them to easily bill patients directly for service, consultation, and late cancels/no-shows.”

Therapy Partner offers an annual subscription based service with plans beginning as low as $54 per month. Therapy Partner also provides flat credit card transaction rates, and they broker the relationship with their partner bank, allowing clinicians to only interface with a dedicated Account Manager at Therapy Partner.

The psychological industry has been requesting this type of well-considered, intuitive technology to address their practice management needs, technology that allows clinicians to focus on providing quality clinical care. Therapy Partner 3.0 brings to clinicians a cost effective, efficient, single-device complete practice management solution that allows them to focus on what they do best, provide quality clinical care to their patients.
