

Top California Volleyball Association Hits Technology Partnership with TeamSnap

BOULDER, Colo. and SACRAMENTO, Calif., Aug. 23, 2019 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Northern California Volleyball Association (NCVA) and TeamSnap, the household name in integrated sports management, announced today they have reached a new partnership making TeamSnap the exclusive club and team management solution for one of the country’s largest volleyball associations.

Send2Press® Newswire

As the governing body for volleyball in Northern California, NCVA is home to more than 25,000 players, coaches, administrators and volunteers across 1,400 teams and 400 member clubs. NCVA member clubs will be able to leverage TeamSnap’s innovative and easy-to-use platform to improve communication and simplify payment collection.

“Northern California Volleyball Association supports a wide-range of programs from grassroots community clubs to high-performance state teams. Partnering with a sophisticated digital platform like TeamSnap will help our clubs and coaches manage their day-to-day operations,” said Donna Donaghy, CEO, Northern California Volleyball Association. “TeamSnap is a huge timesaver that will help us stay focused on growing the sport across the state.”

As the industry leader in sports management, TeamSnap supports more than 20 million users, 2 million unique teams and 19,000 clubs across 100 different sports. The platform is used by thousands of volleyball clubs across North America including provincial sport organization Ontario Volleyball Association as well as NCVA member clubs: Marin Juniors Volleyball Club, Vibe Volleyball Club, Velocity Volleyball Club and Bay Area Volleyball.

“NCVA is the heart of the California volleyball community and a proven leader in growing the sport over the past 30 years. We look forward to working together to expand their operations and connect their clubs at every level—from parents and coaches to administrators and board members,” said Greg Ludke, General Manager, Sports Organizations, TeamSnap.
