

TopProdeals.com Rises to Top as Discount Dental Supply Leader

LOS ANGELES, Calif., June 17, 2013 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Velplex, LLC announced this week that after one year, TopProdeals.com, a technology platform that connects buyers and sellers of discount dental supplies, has evolved into being an industry leader.

Why? It's because the business leaders working behind the scenes at TopProdeals™ are intimately familiar with the dental industry. They have 50 years of combined experience in the healthcare community and have diligently worked to negotiate some of the best prices in the business. As a result, dental providers benefit by having easy access to discount dental supplies.

On average, dentists realize an average savings of 50 to 75 percent off retail prices. Product diversity is also a key to the site's success.

TopProdeals.com, a secure website, offers daily multiple deals at some of the industry's lowest prices. For example, weekly promotions include "Disposable Fridays" where 300 plus disposable dental supplies deals are offered; and free shipping is offered on Tuesday for all orders of $100 or more.

Deals are typically limited to a specific time frame or until the product sells out; and buyers are usually limited to the amount they can buy. This is to ensure that all buyers have access to great savings.

Staff at TopProdeals explains that its service is unlike that of the competition. It offers a greater variety of deals and vendors from which to choose. And staff truly understands and cares about the needs of its customers.

It's simple for both buyers and sellers to get involved with TopProdeals. Buyers register, purchase, save and stay informed about future deals. Sellers register and liquidate overstock. And buyers do not have to do any of the research; the work has already been done for them. They simply purchase the daily deal(s) of their choice and save money so they can run a more efficient practice.

This dental supply marketplace is ideal for dental practices that are business conscious and want to reduce overhead. TopProdeals puts the control in the hands of the dental practice, not in the hands of the major retail conglomerations.
