Brandi Irwin, the event host and co-producer cites "Soundwaves 360° Music Event" as a full spectrum of hip hop musical art. "We are so excited to present this explosion of diverse talent! Hip hop as a culture is really a culmination of a variety of styles and sounds. 'Soundwaves 360° Music Event' will be a festival vibe in a nightclub setting. Everyone will be able to groove to their favorites while experiencing a medley range of rhythms. Los Angeles has not yet experienced a night quite like this.”

“Soundwaves 360° Music Event” will be Twista’s first Los Angeles performance in four years. The Chicago based entertainer, who once held the title of “Fastest Rapper in the World” according to Guinness World Records, is a veteran multi-genre talent. His 2004 single, “Slow Jamz” (also featured on Kanye West’s debut album “The College Dropout”), featured West and Jamie Foxx and became a number-one hit in the US.

Recording artist and nationally known DJ/ promoter DJ G-Love is one to watch. He will make his L.A. performance debut during the evening, with his single releases, “True Lies,” and “Miss My Flight.” His new album project “Chasing A Grammy,” via Empire Distribution, is slated to drop soon.

Veronica Vega, one of the stars of “Love & Hip Hop: Miami” is known for her single “Wicked,” which features Pitbull, and her viral hit “Pay Me.” Her new single, “A Million,” featuring Quavo, has over 10 million hits on YouTube.

Crazy Town X, one of the first hybrid brands to mix equal parts urban and suburban with their rap infused rock sound, are in the midst of their 20-year anniversary tour with this appearance and have plans to release their new album, “The Beautiful and Insane.” RlckOne™, well known for his work with the Black Eyed Peas, will perform alongside Crazy Town X.
