

U.S. Non-profits Can Now Get a Complimentary Vanity Number from RingBoost

PLEASANTVILLE, N.Y., June 8, 2017 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Leading vanity number provider RingBoost is expanding its donation program to provide custom phone numbers to nonprofits and charitable organizations. Following a successful run that has seen the company find memorable numbers for a variety of worthy causes, such as Gracepointe Church in Florida and Habitat for Humanity in Pittsburgh, RingBoost wanted to bring the benefits to a wider audience.

Paul Faust, SVP of Business Development at RingBoost, explains the company's decision to broaden the program as part of its continuing desire to give back: "We are always striving to help not-for-profit organizations reach more people. Our memorable numbers help charities raise awareness for their cause and get more calls from supporters. Just like the for-profit sector, more calls mean more money coming in. It's an effective marketing asset that will work for any organization."

The program has received widespread support from nonprofits and charity leaders. At the Habitat for Humanity of Greater Pittsburgh, for example, Dr. Howard B. Slaughter, Jr. had this to say: "Working with the team to get our unique phone number that will resonate with supporters was very important."

The team at RingBoost exhibit great commitment and a can-do attitude, which all charitable organizations will appreciate.”

With so many great numbers available, the hardest part for most marketers is choosing just one for their business. Nonprofits and charities will have help from the company’s marketing experts, as they select a complimentary vanity number to improve recall and maximize fundraising and their other efforts.
