“Every software solution has its strengths and weaknesses, and what may be a great fit for one organization, might not be the best solution for another company,” said Jeffrey Unalp, CPA and founder of Unalp CPA Group, Inc. “In providing outsourced accounting services we use both Xero and Sage Intacct, and we enlisted the help of QuickBooks expert Penny Breslin.”

Unalp’s document “Comparing Xero, QuickBooks, and Sage Intacct” covers pricing, ease of use and more than half a dozen functional areas such as reporting, payroll, and invoicing. The comparison also looks at customer service, integration capabilities and security.

Complete with screen shots, analysis, and survey data, "Comparing Xero, QuickBooks, and Sage Intacct" is meant as a resource to give organizations a better understanding of the accounting solutions available to them.

Nonprofit organizations and businesses that work with Unalp CPA Group enjoy a full service, outsourced accounting solution. Unalp CPA Group, in addition to executing the accounting duties and providing financial reporting, assembles the best accounting tools to put to use on behalf of its clients, including Sage Intacct, Xero, QuickBooks, Nexonia, Bill.com, and Expensify.
