This Silicon Valley Halloween Party is unique because it enables people to view their favorite singers and bands as they dance. How is this possible? Because recorded music videos are projected on multiple huge screen surrounding the dance floor. The music videos are pre-recorded. So, one can dance to favorites by making a request to the VJ/DJ, Nick Senadenos of NicksMusicBytheBay.com.

“We attended this event last year and it was wonderful,” a party guest recently said to Phil Seyer, Director of Professionals Guild. “I especially liked the costume contest, photographer, and music videos for dancing.”
