

Unique Messengers Debuts New Album: Jesus is Coming

BROOKLYN, N.Y., Nov. 24, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Committed to spreading the word of God, Unique Messengers recently debuted their first album, “Jesus is Coming,” and is gearing up for an international tour next spring.

“Jesus is Coming,” an original and thought provoking album, delivers a fusion of styles that includes rhythm and blues, reggae, Soca and rap. It’s clearly music that makes you want to move your body and awakens your spirit.

“This ‘Jesus is Coming’ project is explosive!” Bishop Mario Ford of Pilgrim Church of Bushwick, says. “The music and the words emphasize the Gospel message of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.”

Promoter, Lester Robinson, agrees that, “‘Jesus is Coming’ is a phenomenal and timely album that will impact the entire world.”

Winfield Craig, the group’s founder, is a native of Trinidad and Tobago. He says that God speaks to him through dreams, and his friends and family know that when he has a dream, it always comes to pass. The “Jesus is Coming” project resulted from a dream he had while living in Trinidad. In the dream, he was in America, saw snow falling and started singing, “Jesus is Coming.” He looked up and saw a hole in the sky and Jesus returned. The rest is history.

Craig moved to America, and with more than 30 years of experience behind him of founding and performing with gospel groups, he recruited Rex Faison and Albert Henry to create Unique Messengers.

The band’s combined experience is impressive. Among their successes, Rex was the lead vocalist for The Melody Men while in the military at Fort Bragg, North Carolina and Albert performed as a vocalist and guitarist for Mickey Mills and the Birds (who later became Two Plus Three) and K.C. and The Flames.

“Music reaches into people’s lives like Jesus did to bring them where he is,” Faison says. “Those who hear this music – it will have a very positive experience on their lives.”

A book is also in the works that documents the making of the album.
