

United Wholesale Mortgage Goes Mobile, Rolls Out Robust iPhone and Android Applications for Brokers

TROY, Mich., Feb. 21, 2014 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – United Wholesale Mortgage (UWM), the nation's largest wholesale lender, announced that it developed and launched a proprietary mobile application for its broker community. The application arms brokers with robust functionality and easy access to loan information while in the field.

"UWM's new mobile application keeps our brokers in the know at all times by providing them with direct access to much of the functionality that exists within EASE (Easiest Application System Ever), which is our broker portal," stated Mat Ishbia, president of UWM. "The use of technology and constant innovation are key components in how we make our brokers' jobs easier. This mobile app is one of many exclusive tools that UWM has unveiled as a commitment to partnering with our clients."

UWM's mobile application allows brokers to easily access rates, manage their pipelines, view borrower and loan details, check real-time status, receive alerts, manage conditions, lock loans and more. The real-time bi-directional communication the application provides between UWM's underwriters, processors and account executives establishes increased transparency and shows any tasks that must be completed in order to expeditiously fund the loan.

Brokers can learn more about UWM's new mobile application by contacting the company at 800-981-8898 or their account executive. The free app is available for both iPhones/iOS and Android phones/devices.
