

U.S. Government Approves EB-5 Investment for Caffe Primo San Diego

COSTA MESA, Calif., Aug. 24, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – PDC Capital Group announced that United States Citizenship and Immigration Services has approved an I-526 petition filed by an investor in a new Caffe Primo restaurant in San Diego.

An I-526 petition approval evidences that the investment made through the EB-5 program – in which foreign nationals may apply for a green card when they invest at least $500,000 in a U.S. business that creates 10 jobs – fulfills all legal requirements for the program.

Caffe Primo's San Diego location opened in July in the downtown area, within walking distance of the city's Gaslamp Quarter. Caffe Primo is a European-style gathering spot famous for its hand-made premium gelato, sorbetto and panini. Existing Caffe Primo restaurants are located in West Hollywood, downtown Los Angeles and Anaheim's Center Street Promenade.

"We are thrilled about the I-526 approval for Caffe Primo San Diego," said Richard Shinn, President of PDC Capital Group. "This is a wonderful project that will enhance the economic vitality of downtown San Diego and create new jobs, which is always the goal for EB-5 investment."
