VALENTIS VP OF STRATEGY, MARTHA HUNTER

Send2Press® Newswire

Martha Hunter comes from the marketing industry where she was a Business Development Executive for six years. Hunter's new position will be responsible for developing and implementing the strategic growth initiatives for Valentis using her experience and resolve to meet objectives to Valentis.

"Valentis already has a reputation for breaking the mold in the security and investigations industry. I have spent my career challenging people and companies to think differently and ask the question 'Why not us? Valentis's culture, values and leadership style embodies that spirit," says V.P. of Strategy Hunter.

She adds, "Strategy development is not a once-a-year thing anymore, it's ongoing and needs to come with recommendations and actions and the company needs to be willing to act. I'm honored to have the opportunity to play a role in the execution piece of strategy, and I'm thrilled to join a women-owned, purpose driven company and look forward to driving new possibilities for our people, our customers and our stakeholders."

Marnie Sutch, CEO, of Valentis welcomed Martha to her new position, stating, "The addition of Martha to our team is about her ability to bring innovation and change to Valentis. The ability to deliver a professional service that delivers a driven result for our clients is a team effort and having Martha strengthens our team."
