Lamperd extensively develops and tests its products to be highly effective in every type of crisis situation. Lamperd also has a perfect safety record of never having caused a single death or even any serious injury in all of the company's history of sales to customers around the globe.

The Global Non-Lethal Weapons Market is Projected to Grow by US$5.2 Billion to 2025. (ResearchAndMarkets.com Reference: <https://www.researchandmarkets.com/reports/4805952/non-lethal-weapons-global-market-trajectory-and>).

Law Enforcement, one of the segments analyzed and sized in this study, displays the potential to grow at over 9%. The shifting dynamics supporting this growth makes it critical for businesses in this space to keep abreast of the changing pulse of the market. Poised to reach over US$10.3 Billion by the year 2025, Law Enforcement will bring in healthy gains.

Valentis will add the superior Lamperd Less Lethal products to its own logistics and support network service as it focuses on being a nationwide distribution partner offering shields, riot helmets and less lethal launchers as well as other peace keeping equipment.

“We are excited to be a distributor for Lamperd Less Lethal and intend to take full advantage of their product line. Valentis is preparing to expand its logistic solution to become a key player throughout the United States,” said Marnie Sutch, CEO of Valentis.
