

Vladimir Bien-Aime Wins Mortgage Banking Magazine's 2015 Tech All-Star Award

LANSDALE, Pa., April 8, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Global DMS, a leading provider of web-based compliant valuation management software, announced that its president and chief executive officer, Vladimir Bien-Aime, has been named to Mortgage Banking magazine's prestigious 2015 Tech All-Stars list. The award was presented to Mr. Bien-Aime at a ceremony during the annual MBA Technology Conference and Expo held at the Hyatt Regency in Orlando, Florida.

Mortgage Banking magazine started the award in 2002 to recognize executives who have made significant technology innovations and contributions to the mortgage industry. Each year the award is given to a select group of mortgage technology leaders who over time have made major strides with various types of technology automation. There were only seven recipients this year.

"As the market continues to evolve, and customer habits and expectations change, technological innovation is more important than ever to ensure a strong housing market," said David Stevens, MBA president and CEO. "But change does not emerge in a vacuum. MBA is honored to once again recognize the men and women who have led the way by creating and advancing new technologies on behalf of consumers, investors, and lenders."

Mr. Bien-Aime was acknowledged for the valuation management software platform he developed and the positive impact he has made on the industry. In 1999, Mr. Bien-Aime founded Global DMS, a leading provider of valuation software for lenders, AMCs, servicers, appraisers and other real estate entities. Global DMS' eTrac® Enterprise platform is a single-source SaaS-based solution that has helped thousands of users compliantly assign, track, review and efficiently deliver appraisals to the Uniform Collateral Data Portal (UCDP). eTrac provides the mortgage industry with a consistent, cost effective, automated method to compliantly manage the entire collateral valuation process.

"It is a huge honor to be named to Mortgage Banking magazine's 2015 Tech All-Stars list," said Bien-Aime. "I've been a technologist and entrepreneur since the early stages of my career and have always looked for ways to make business processes better using software. I'm thrilled to be recognized for the work I've done in helping advance the residential and commercial appraisal space by producing leading-edge technology."
