

VLP Law Group Continues Growth with the Addition of Affordable Housing Partner Tamara L. Osborne

PALO ALTO, Calif., Sept. 16, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – VLP Law Group LLP is pleased to announce that Tamara L. Osborne has joined the firm's Affordable Housing & Community Development Practice as a partner based in Los Angeles.

Ms. Osborne represents syndicators, direct investors and developers in connection with a wide range of affordable housing and other transactions utilizing federal and state low income housing tax credits, federal and state historic tax credits, and new market tax credits. Her experience includes drafting and negotiating lower-tier and upper-tier partnership agreements and negotiating bond and loan documents. She is also experienced with work-outs of distressed assets, post-closing/asset management matters, partner disputes and end of compliance project dispositions.

"Tamara's twenty years of experience with syndicators and investors, will add a valuable dimension to our Affordable Housing practice," said Byron Rodriguez, a partner in the firm's Affordable Housing & Community Development Practice. "We look forward to her joining the team."

Prior to joining VLP, Ms. Osborne was Senior Vice President in the equity production group of a large national syndication company. In private practice, Tamara was one of the founding partners of Bocarsly, Emden, Cowan, Esmail & Arndt. She graduated with honors from the University of Arkansas, Little Rock, School of Law, and holds a B.A. in History from the University of Arkansas, Little Rock. Ms. Osborne is a member of the California and Arkansas bars.

"I am very excited about joining VLP," stated Ms. Osborne. "I look forward to bringing my legal and business experience to the firm's top-notch Affordable Housing and Community Development Practice."
