

Wall Street Journal Selects Attorney M. David Shapiro as a Member of The Best Lawyers in Florida

SARASOTA, Fla., Nov. 19, 2015 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – Attorney M. David Shapiro of the Sarasota-based personal injury law firm Shapiro Goldman Babboni & Walsh has been published in the September 2015 Wall Street Journal's Best Lawyers In Florida.

Only attorneys that have demonstrated the highest ethical standards and excellence in service are qualified to be a candidate for the Wall Street Journal's Best Lawyers In Florida. Once it has been determined that an attorney meets all of the standards, then they become eligible for nomination. Members of the Best Lawyers In Florida are chosen by their peers to be recognized and included in this elite group of attorneys.

Being published as a Best Lawyer In Florida by a well-known publication can help provide assurances to potential clients that the attorney they are considering is ethical, experienced and well regarded by their peers.

Attorney M. David Shapiro had this to say, "As an attorney practicing in the competitive field of personal injury law, we often meet potential clients looking to choose the lawyer that will represent them during one of the most trying times in their life. With such a big decision to make, many people will look for ways to measure the ethics and professionalism of their prospective lawyer, and to be reassured they have chosen the right lawyer to represent their interests. Being recognized by the Wall Street Journal, a publication everyone has heard of, can help inform those making this important choice that they are working with an experienced, qualified and ethical lawyer."
