

Women in Business Collaborate for Selfless Cause

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 1, 2016 (SEND2PRESS NEWSWIRE) – On November 12, 2016 professional women in South Florida and surrounding areas will gather together at White Hall Miami in Sunny Isles Beach for the second annual Tips and Tea Professionals' Night Out. Produced by Ameliorate Strategies and Development Group LLC, Tips & Tea is an exclusive event coordinated for the personal development and professional advancement of women from all backgrounds, industries, and affiliations.

Attendees unite to encourage female-operated businesses and initiatives, promote social commonality, drink unlimited wine, eat until satisfied, and learn action-provoking tips for their career goals and personal aspirations. Customized workshops, interactive activities with live performances, business features, and an award ceremony for business start-ups are some of the highlights of the evening.

“Last year, the response we received for Tips and Tea was incredible. It’s an illustration that women no matter how diverse in age, race, culture or profession, have the desire and will to come together and support each other,” said Kisha Payen, President of The ASD Group and creator of the Tips and Tea Professionals’ Night Out for Women.

For the 2016 Night Out, patrons can take part in the Pretty Purses initiative; a drive to collect mildly used to new purses and handbags filled with toiletries in addition to collecting donated clothes and toys for the Lotus House families.

General admission is $30 and a discount will be applied with donated items. Event takes place from 4 to 8 p.m. Parking is free.
